

Ladies,

One of my most treasured, Mary Kay possessions (besides my caddy and ring) would be my $700,000 bar pin. I get more questions, on how many zeros are on the pin and what it stands for, than anything else I wear. My bar pin reminds me of the hard work produced by both myself and you. It is a piece that makes me proud every time I look at it. After my first few months as a consultant, my director Angie Day, gave me a bar pin similar to the one pictured. It was for $11,000 in retail sales, and I remember being amazed at how much I had actually sold. The pin was a symbol of my success. It showed both me, and my support group, I was making money, and joining Mary Kay had been a smart decision. I want to help you have those same feelings and thoughts about your business.

Please take a little time and complete your weekly accomplishment sheets. If possible look at your sales from July 1, 2009, to the present week. Fill out every week and submit them to me. I want to send, or hand, every single consultant, and A-Team member, a bar pin symbolizing her success throughout the year. If you don't have a goal I am sure this recognition is going to help you set a goal. So, submit your weekly accomplishment sheets, and get your beautiful bar pin!!! For those of you who I meet at Ladies Nite Live, I hope to be able to hand you your pin and promote your name in the Newsletter. If I am not face-to-face connecting with you, I will be sending you your pin and promoting your name in the Newsletter. Every time your WASheet shows a new pin level, please click on the Prize Button on the Promotions Page and let me know you moved up a bar pin then I will be trading pins with you!!! I can't wait to watch you climb the jewel studded Mary Kay Ladder of Success!!!!

Krista
